MYS Experience

As one of the Founding Resident Companies of the Mesa Arts Center, the ensembles of MYS have the privilege of performing in the exquisite Ikeda Theater. Additionally, members may participate in a variety of performance opportunities, including the Division 1 Fall Retreat in Prescott, the Holiday Pops Concert, a series of solo recitals, the annual scholarship competition and annual summer music camp, a jazz lab and honors quartets, as well as our homeschool classes for beginner band and string instruments.

Season 2024-2025

DIVISION 3 STRING ORCHESTRA

Rehearse: Wednesdays 5-6:30pm at MCC
Conductor: Cicely Brazier

DIVISION 4 STRING ORCHESTRA

Rehearse: Wednesdays
5-6:30pm at MCC
Conductor: Kevin Wilcox

A place for everyone!

Members participating in these ensembles will practice skilled rehearsal techniques and gain experience playing with sensitivity and balance, all within a professional environment. In addition, through regular chair auditions, these musicians can advance into other ensembles suited to their technical strengths.

DIVISION 1 FULL SYMPHONY

Rehearse: Thursdays 5-7pm at MCC
Conductor: Karalee Hagen
Winds/Percussion Coach: Brian Murphy
This principal performing ensemble is comprised of our most advanced members

DIVISION 2 STRING ORCHESTRA

Rehearse: Thursdays 5-6:30pm
at Mesa Community College
Conductor: Amy Bennett

DEBUT STRING ORCHESTRA

Rehearse: Wednesdays 5-6:30pm at MCC
Conductor: Bonnie Roesch
*This ensemble is by recommendation only.
No audition required.*

SYMPHONIC WIND ENSEMBLE

Rehearse: Wednesdays, 5-6:45pm at MYS
Conductor: Brian Murphy
Participation is by audition only. These young woodwind, brass, and percussionists gain the experience and rehearsal techniques required to be strong leaders in their school band programs. The literature is designed to propel all members forward, as many will soon step into even more exposed roles in Division 1 Full Symphony.

Honors Quartets

These members are invited to participate by our conductors and Quartet Coach. They will occasionally perform for hire. Members of Division 1 are eligible to apply once the regular season has begun.

Jazz Lab

Members are open to participating if they are in good standing in Division 1, Division 2, or Wind Ensemble. Registration will open when the regular season begins.

"MYS conductors have motivated and encouraged my daughter to strive for her personal best. This organization fills the need in music education to spur kids to build confidence and vision for themselves. They build a lifelong love of music."
