Who We Are

As one of The Founding Resident Companies of the Mesa Arts Center, the ensembles of MYS have the privilege of performing in the exquisite Ikeda Theater. Additionally, members may participate in a variety of performance opportunities, including the Division 1 Fall Retreat in Prescott, the Holiday Pops Concert, a series of solo recitals, the annual scholarship competition, our annual summer music camp, a jazz lab, honors quartets, and more.

A place for everyone

Members participating in these ensembles will practice skilled rehearsal techniques and gain experience playing with sensitivity and balance, all within a professional environment. In addition, through regular chair auditions, these musicians can advance into other ensembles suited to their technical strengths.

Division 1 Full Symphony

Rehearse: Wednesdays 5-7pm at First Presbyterian Church of Mesa

W/B Coach: Brian Murphy

This principal performing ensemble is comprised of our most advanced members and attends a Prescott annual retreat in September,

Division 2 Advanced String Orchestra

Rehearse: Wednesdays 5-6:30pm at First Presbyterian Church of Mesa
Conductor: Amy Bennett

Division 3 String Orchestra

Rehearse: Thursdays 5-6:30pm at First Presbyterian Church of Mesa
Conductor: Cicely Brazier

Division 4 String Orchestra

Rehearse: Thursdays 5-6:30pm at First Presbyterian Church of Mesa
Conductor: Kevin Wilcox

Debut Strings

Rehearse: Wednesdays 5-6:30pm at First Presbyterian Church of Mesa
Conductor: Bonnie Roesch
This ensemble is by recommendation only. No audition required.

Symphonic Wind Ensemble

Rehearse: Thursdays, 5-6:45pm at First Presbyterian Church of Mesa
Conductor: Brian Murphy

Participation is by audition only. These young woodwind, brass, and percussionists gain the experience and rehearsal techniques required to be strong leaders in their school band programs. The literature is designed to propel all members forward, as many will soon step into even more exposed roles in Division 1 Full Symphony.

Auditions 8/11-8/14

"MYS conductors have motivated and encouraged my child to strive for her personal best. This organization fills the need in music education to spur kids to build confidence and vision for themselves. They build a lifelong love of music."
